CAPITTEN

Vision & Mission

About us.

OPPORTUNITIES DON'T HAPPEN YOU CREATE THEM

Capitten aspires to lead the market with a creator mindset, like Iniesta's unique approach to sport with his magic talent.

We want to transmit to society values such as effort, personal improvement and teamwork.

We are not afraid in changing the unexpected, in making a difference an inspire no matter how hard the play is. We do so by projecting a captain mindset, working with the class inherited by our masters and the attention to detail influenced by the perseverance of Bushido.

At Capitten, I try to transmit what I've learnt during my career. How I understand and live football, and life. Always through the lenses of team, effort, hard work and ambition to improve day by day"

Andrés Iniesta

I'm a soccer player, boots are key to my performance and I really respect the work made by designers and engineers to get the best output as possible. When I retired, Capitten will be a nice way to keep connected with football and new generations of players.”
